INDIANS BEAT THE BADGERS.

CARLISLE WON LAST MIGHT'S CHI-CAGO GAME, 18 TO 8.

Badgers Not in the Best of Condition and Couldn't Withstand the Redskins' Rushes-A Brilliant Society Event.

Chicago, Dec. 12.—The Carlisle Indians deteated the University of Wisconsin foot-hall eleven to-night by a score of 18 to 8. Two of their touchdowns were scored in the second half by steady, persistent hammering at Wisconsin's center, the factics which told so heavily on Yale. The Badgers, who were in none of the best condition, were simply unable to hold them. Wisconsin lost much ground for off-side playing, and, in fact, the touchdown of the Indians in the first half was directly attributable to this.

Karei, as usual, did some brilliant playing for the Badgers, one run of twenty-five yards being made through a maze of tacklers. He was unfortunate, however, in catching punts, and the yellow painted roof evidently militated greatly against accurate catching. Both teams played clean, hard football.

Both teams played clean, hard football. It was simply a case of condition, and the magnificent form displayed by the Indians made the issue a certainty after they secured the ball in the second half.

A funny incident occurred in the first half. With the ball in Carlisle's hands and on the 15-yard line, B. Pierce dropped back for a kick. The ball went almost straight up into the girders, where it stuck, and the audience yelled itself hoarse as some small boy, more daring than his companions, crawled up the Incline of one of the big girders to where the hall was and dislodged it. Then he sat there and grinnel, as all kinds of advice were howled at him.

The game was a memorable one for more reasons than one. The report that President-elect McKinley was to be a spectator was probably as potent a factor, if not more so, in drawing the crowd of between 12.00 and 4,000 people than the game it. self. It also gave the football enthusiasts an opportunity of witnessing a contest between a team that is recognized as the strongest in the West and one which has met the elevens of the Hig Four, and, although defeated by them, certainly kept them busy.

met the elevens of the Rig Four, and, although defeated by them, certainly kept them busy.

The game almost took on the nature of a society event. The flower of Chicago's 400 were present, and the boxes along the east side of the field were filled with gally dressed women and their escorts. Ex-Senator Spooner, of Wisconsin, an old Wisconsin graduate, and a party of friends occupied a box, as did Fresident Adams, of the Wisconsin university. He was accompanied by a number of the faculty. The crowd rather favored the Indians, Probably 56 students from the Badger university had accompanied the team from Madison to cheer them, and the Wisconsin alumni were also well represented, but the rest of the audience was evidently in favor of the Carlisle men, and "rooted" loudly and continually for them.

The field was in splendid shape. During the Thanksgiving game between Michigan and Chicago, the players had cause for complaint on account of the softness of the field. All this had been obviated however. Extra coatings of clay had been spread, and the field carefully rolled and revolled, until it was as hard and springy as an adobe road.

During the wait for the teams to appear and between the halves, the Carlisle Indian band played a number of pieces. The teams lined up as follows:

AVERAGES OF THE BOWLERS.

Hackett, Whitney and Stranathan Are Having a Hot Race for First Place.

Ten of the eighteen weeks of the bowling tournament have now passed, and the figures giving the average this week are more comprehensive than usual, showing completely the work of the bowlers as individuals and as teams for the games bowled. Not only is the average of each bowled. Not only is the average of each bowler given, but his high score as well, and the total number of strikes and spares to his credit.

The figures show that Hackett still clings tenaciously to the lead, though he is closely pressed by Whitney and Stranathan, with several others in easy striking distance. Nine of the bowlers have averages of 590 or better, and of these nine, four belong to the Kansas Citys and three to the Owls.

In the team averages the Kansas Citys have a clear lead of 152 pins, no other team having an average over 2,500.

Sergeant Webber, of the Grand avenue police, reported to the board that Sandy Edwards' saloon at 704 East Twelfth street is nothing more nor less than a big gamb ling resort for negroes who flock there by the hundreds every day and night. Craps, poker and other games are in full fledge all the time and the sergeant complains that he cannot enter the place with a coterie of men for the purpose of "pulling" it because of the expert control the bar-tenders in the saloon have over a system of electric bells which communicate with the gambling parts of the house. His approach is always forewarned and the gamblers get away. The board ordered that Mr. Edwards be subpoensed before it next Saturday to show cause why his saloen license should not be forfelted. Mayor Jones said that if there was to be a movement against gambling dens provided with electric alarm bells he proposed that W. H. Christie, whose place at 1208 Walnut street has dong been a bone of contention to the board, be summoned along with Mr. Edwards to make his de-fense. Commissioners Fyke and Johnson objected to any harsh treatment to Mr. Christie, and said that there was no evi-dence at all that his place was provided Consumption is no respecter of persons. The germs of this most dreadful of diseases float in the air we breathe, in the water we drink, in the money we handle. Perfectly harmless in a healthy body, they are absolutely deadly wherever weakness exists. The lungs are the most sensitive of all the vital organs. The delicate lining of the lung cells and passages is easily irritated If the blood is impure and germful the lung lining soon becomes inflamed. Impure matter accumulates. If a consump-tion germ is in the body it lodges there and propagates. Soon the entire is full of bacilli and consumption has firm hold.

Many doctors say that consumption is incurable and necessarily fatal. are mistaken. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption, if taken promptly according to directions. It has cured thousands. It is quickly absorbed by the blood and searches out every disease germ in the body. It assists nature to throw off germs and all effete matter and restores the body to perfect health and strength.

when the bowels are clogged they unload their impurities into the blood which in turn deposits them throughout the entire system. like to give up their places the day that Governor Morrill surrenders the reins of government, but upon the advice of party leaders they will serve out their terms or until they are removed. In many places the Republicans will remain in control of the boards until April or May, unless the Populist administration violates all rules of decency and runs things in a highhanded manner. Be it to the credit of Mr. handed manner. He if to the credit of Mr. Leedy, the Republican leaders believe that he will take no radical action in the matter of appointments. The principal reason urged by the leaders for all officials to hold on until their terms expire or they are removed is that by so doing the employes under them will have employment during the winter months. Scores of employes have nothing whatever in view and if the members of children survive him. the present time, and if the members of the various boards would resign on inaugu ration day it would simply mean a clean sweep immediately. The leaders say it would be an injustice for the officials to do this; that it is their duty to stay as long as they can and protect the employes.

RIGGS HIRES A STENOGRAPHER. Seems to Be Confident of Winning His Contest Against Smith.

Riggs, of Lawrence, is so positive that he will win the contest which he will file against C. A. Smort of Charles and the contest which he will file tory. against C. A. Smart, of Ottawa, for judge of the Douglas-Franklin district, that he has already promised P. S. Hillman, of Lyons, Kas., a position as his court stenog-rapher. Hillman said so to-day. Hillman says he does not anticipate any trouble arising because Riggs went out of his cial district for a stenographer. But he may be mistaken. There are those in Doughas and Franklin counties who believe the job ought to remain at home.

He was killed in battie and fell too close to the footlights. The curtain went down and left him outside, exposed for several min-utes to the unsympathetic gaze of a thou-sand eyes. He stayed dead, however, until dragged under the curtain by a Red Cross rescue corps.
